

Ivo Šlaus, president World Academy since 2011, fellow since 1994. Member of The Club of Rome since 1988. Member of the Pugwash Council (2002-). Member of the European Leadership Network (2010-). Founding member Academia Europaea (1988) and European Physical Society (1969). Member of Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, corresponding member of Macedonian and Montenegrin Academies. Professor of physics (since 1967). Visiting professor: UCLA (1964-2003), Duke University (1980-), Georgetown University (1979-1992), Free university Amsterdam, Kyoto University, etc. Author of 276 scientific publications and six monographs in physics, invited speaker at over 50 international conferences. Research: nuclear and particle physics, medical physics, science policy, security, sustainable development and human capital. Dean Dag Hammarskjold University College for International Affairs and Diplomacy. Former member Croatian Parliament (2000-2004).